NG SAI YEANG

Management Partner - Head of Dispute Resolution

Areas of Experience

Sai Yeang has been in active practice since 1991 and has appeared as lead counsel before judges at every level of the Malaysian judicial system, specializing in commercial litigation.

Sai Yeang counts most of the major banks in Malaysia as her clients, who look to her to defend them in actions brought against them arising out of banking transactions and facilities enjoyed by the banking clients.

Sai Yeang has a prodigious workload of corporate litigation briefs relating to matters such as shareholder disputes, boardroom tussles, corporate fraud and schemes of arrangement.

Sai Yeang has also acted as expert witness in the areas of contract, finance and securities in foreign arbitration proceedings.

Sai Yeang shares her expansive court-room experience as a Trainer of the Bar Council's Advocacy Training courses and her professionalism is affirmed by being appointed as member of the Disciplinary Committee Panel appointed by the Advocates and Solicitors' Disciplinary Board under the Legal Profession Act 1976.

The 2020 edition of Chambers Asia Pacific recognized Sai Yeang as a leading dispute resolution practitioner with expertise in insolvency issues, remarking that an interviewee considered her to be "on the ball with her cases". Sai Yeang continued to be ranked in the 2021 – 2024 editions.

Relevant Engagement

Successfully acted for a foreign company to recover monies which was fraudulently transferred out of its jurisdiction as a result of cyber fraud to Singapore and then Malaysia
