Denia joined Soemadipradja & Taher in 2008. Denia attended secondment programs at a number of leading international law firms, including Freehills (Australia), Rajah & Tann (Singapore) and Nagashima Ohno & Tsunematsu (Japan).

Denia is the first point of call for mergers & acquisitions, foreign direct investment, carbon and ESG, and renewable energy projects and issues.

Awards

Denia is named as Indonesian Rising Stars Young Lawyers 2021 in Asian Legal Business and Recommended Lawyers 2023 in Indonesian In-House Counsel Summit and Awards 2023.

Work Highlights

- Advised the Compact Development Team (CDT) on the launch of a $698 million grant program from the Millennium Challenge Corporation (MCC) to the Indonesian Government. The grant will support the development of high-quality, climate-conscious transportation infrastructure in five provinces; mobilise international capital in support of Indonesia's development goals, in part by building the capacity of Indonesia's financial markets; and increase access to finance for Indonesia's women-owned businesses and micro, small, and medium sized enterprises.
- Advised The Blackstone Group (HK) Ltd on their US$1.6 billion acquisition in Interplex, a global leader in innovative and customised connector solutions for the auto, medical and information communications technology (ICT) markets.
