

Nick Vineall KC is a highly revered silk specialising in commercial litigation and international arbitration across multiple areas including insurance and reinsurance. Nick is ranked for commercial dispute resolution in both Chambers & Partners and Legal 500 directories, where he is described as “excellent on his feet and very thorough in his preparation.” Nick has appeared in the UK Supreme Court, Court of Appeal, and High Court as well as in a wide range of arbitral tribunals both domestically and internationally, with a particular reputation for his work in the Far East. In addition to his counsel practice, Nick accepts appointments as arbitrator and has sat as either sole or panel arbitrator under LCIA, LMAA, HKIAC and VIAC. Nick sat as Deputy High Court Judge in the Commercial Court and Technology and Construction Court between 2017-2022, a period where he was also joint Head of Chambers. Nick has recently returned to Chambers following his time as Chairman of the Bar of England and Wales in 2023.