

Professional Experience:

Mr. Ken WATANABE has significant experiences and expertise in wide range of international transactions including many cases of cross-border investment, M&A and PMI.

He also has extensive experiences of dispute resolution from troubleshooting and settlement talks to litigation to solve troubles that occur in daily business.

He has more than 20 years of experiences in total serving as the head of legal department in Japanese Investment Company, Semiconductor company and Chemical company.

Also, in the early 2010's, in the corporate planning department of Japanese Chemical company, he experienced planning and implementing corporate strategies in the international arena.

On the other hand, he has significant experiences in building and improving group's internal control system, including (i) designing and improving organizations and operation flows to meet the requirements of operational efficiency, mutual supervision, compliance, and accuracy of information within group-wide organization, (ii) planning and constantly improving group-wide compliance system, and (iii) strengthening corporate governance system likewise. In this regard, he has significant experiences of corporate laws and facilitating dialogue with institutional investors.

He teaches cross-border M&A and PMI in Doshisha University's School of Law, as a part-time professor.

Ken WATANABE

Executive Officer
Group's internal control

Education

- University of Tokyo
(Master of Laws)

Languages

- Japanese
- English